

Biographical Information:

Kalli Bellou was born in Belgium in 1963 and has been living in Athens, Greece since 1973. She is a self-taught photographer & digital artist, and has been a member of the Hellenic Photographic Society and the Photography Center of Thessaloniki for many years. She has participated in many group exhibitions in Greece and abroad, and has also presented two solo exhibitions. Some of her travel photographs have been published in Greek magazines [July 2003 Metro ticket, Summer 2005 Metro ticket, May 2006 Vimagazino, Summer 2015 Tinos About]. In addition, works of hers have become covers of three books by Estia publishing house in Athens [2004, Savvas Pavlou, The First Move, 2004 Regis Debray, L'enseignement du fait religieux dans l'école laïque, 2006 Zygmunt Bauman, Liquid Love – On the Frailty of Human Bonds].

She has created a large number of digital art collections, inspired by nature, ancient Greece and imaginary stories. She adores patterns and psychedelic shapes. Some of the artists that have inspired her are Andre Kertesz, Man Ray, Salvador Dali, Picasso, Klimt and Caravaggio.
